SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Jorge Idiaquez is one of the Aprista underground leaders whom the Peruvian police have been ordered to bring in "dead or alive".
2. Idiaquez is a native of Trujillo, Peru, where he was born about 35 years ago. At the age of 15 Idiaquez had already become a great admirer of Aprista leader Victor Raul Haya de la Torre. In about 1930 when Haya was visiting Trujillo on a political tour, Idiaquez and a group of other youths, also admirers of Aprismo, volunteered to serve as a bodyguard for Haya on his travels in northern Peru. Haya was greatly impressed with young Idiaquez and decided to take him under his wing as a protege.
3. Haya took Idiaquez with him everywhere he went, taught him to read and write, and instructed him thoroughly in party doctrine. Idiaquez is not believed to have had any schooling other than what he received from Haya.
4. Idiaquez has been in party work ever since he joined Haya. He is not known to have any other employment. He grew into a tough, completely loyal individual and became well known as Haya's bodyguard. He never occupied any important positions in the party during the times when it was permitted to function legally, but he has always been a prominent figure in party underground activities. He has been particularly active in some of the party's terroristic activities, and at present is one of Haya's most trusted underground operatives. He is now in hiding in the Lima area, and very few party members know his address.
5. All members of Idiaquez' family are Aprista sympathizers. His father is dead but his mother is still living. He is one of six children and is single. His brothers are Carlos, Manuel, Luis, and another whose name is not known at present. His sister, Juana, is married to Luis Guerra, an Aprista who turned informer and was later personally beaten up by Idiaquez.
